1. Good Morning Boys and Girls.... “Knowledge Plus Insight is Strength”

Your grades for the 1st Quarter were quite good. School Average 1st
This is what we have so far: Quarter

G1 to G11	2.98
G4 to G11	2.97
G7 to G11	2.86
G5	3.62
G6	3.36
G7	3.23
G8	2.65
G9	2.94
G10	2.28
G11	3.09

2. This morning 1st period will be held in the auditorium. It will be a house meeting with an emphasis on “Team Building.” Please be prompt and sit with your house. Right after the morning assembly is over, go to the auditorium with your teachers. In the Auditorium sit with your house.
3. Students please sign up for designing and building the haunted house for the school. You can do this in T. Patrick’s room on the 3rd floor. If you do not do this there will be no haunted house. I know you want to make that go. Support your school.
4. We need student volunteers for the Yearbook. See Teacher Toby on the second floor.
5. MOVIE JAM – Friday, 26 October 2007 at 6:00 pm.
6. Please Remember ENGLISH EVERYWHERE.... All the time.
7. Students/Teachers – The green sheets that you receive for morning attendance at the assembly must be turned into T. Tom at the end of the morning assembly. It is a must that we have these in a timely manner. The students do not seem to be getting the white attendance sheets to Joy at the end of the day. All the 8th period teachers, please collect your sheets and turn them into Joy on the way out of school. Thank you.
8. Have a super day, and remember “Knowledge Plus Insight is Strength”.

Any new information from teachers? From students? Please see Ms. Na for Announcement form prior to the day of the announcement.

 2. The Green room will not be available to show movies. Please advise me what the plans are for days that you will want to show movies, date, time, and I will then forward this plan for the rest of this semester to the facility manager. To come up with the place.
 3. Teachers if you know of any place that you would like to receive professional development, please submit your idea to me, and then we can work on a budget for it.
 4. Teachers sign up for Halloween Party work in front of Ms. Na's desk
 5. Teachers, Parent Teacher Conference: It will be on Friday, 26 October 2007. Please have your outside board decorated with student work, or something appropriate. Have a class room schedule and times posted on your door, grade report sheet (from EZGrade), assignments and work of students on the wall, and a possible portfolio to show the students work thus far. Please remember the list of questions that I gave you at the last Teachers meeting. Be prepared to answer them.
 6. Remember Teachers the deadline for any items on for the news letter is the 18th of October. Let's get something from your classes for this news letter. Get a soft copy to Joy at the main desk.
 7. Teacher's Grade Pre-K to Grade 11, sign up for a formal observation on the sheet that is posted on the wall above your mail boxes. I will then send you a pre-observation form and the date and time of your pre-observation conference. If you do not sign up, I will be popping in when I have want to. Please have your grade book open on your computer for me to look at, and your current lesson plans.
 8. Students/Teachers – The green sheets that you receive for morning attendance at the assembly must be turned into T. Tom at the end of the morning assembly. It is a must that we have these in a timely manner. The students do not seem to be getting the white attendance sheets to Joy at the end of the day. All the 8th period teachers, please collect your sheets and turn them into Joy on the way out of school. Thank you.
 9. Please submit article for the KPIS Times by or on 18th October.
